

THURSDAY 9th JUNE 2016

77 Sold

Auctioneer: Gwilym Richards

Sale at 11 am

A most satisfactory trade in the current dairy climate with all cattle finding new homes.

The sale included the dispersal sale of the entire milking herd for Mrs Jane Parry and her son Neil of Llanishen, Chepstow. Their cattle met a fast trade with prices peaking at 1,080gns for a 2nd calver with other 2nd calvers selling to 1,000gns. The herd, of chiefly commercial milkers, averaged £760 with the three quartered and aged cows averaging £580.

The sale also included in-calf heifers from the Daniels herd of Messrs Davis at Blakeney which sold to 900 guineas.
