The above headline says it all !!!

Market Drayton Market is the place to be selling all types of dairy cattle at with record after record tumbling and an electric trade cascading from the rafters of a full house.

The recently launched Mid-Month Sales incorporating the Monthly Show & Sale of Fresh Milkers and the Collective Sale of Youngstock of All Ages attracted sellers and buyers from throughout England and Wales.

The Show was ably judged by regular supporter Richard Bowdler of Ellesmere, Shropshire, and awarded the 1st prize rosette to RJ Rose & Partners of Chinnor, Oxfordshire, which then sold for the day's highest price of £2,400 to Henry Elkin of Stone, Staffordshire.

Four other heifers crossed the £2,000 barrier. £2,150 RJ Rose & Son, £2,150 D & E Monk, Ormskirk, Lancashire, £2,100 Stubbs Partners, Whitgreave, Staffordshire, £2,020 J Brown, Worcester.

In-calf heifers due next month sold to £1,900 for WJ Lewis & Co, Chester, with others at £1,720, £1,680, those calving early next year sold to £1,550.

Yearling heifers from The Downing Partnership, Edenbridge, Kent, sold to £930 (13 months), and heifer calves to £840 (11m), £780 (10m), £710 (8m), £660 (7m), £660 (6m), £600 (5m), £480 (3m).
