HEIFERS TO £2,500

It was a pleasure to stand in the rostrum in Gwilym's absence today to a full shed of dairy cattle and to see a packed ring of buyers, all sold to a wonderful trade.

Setting the standard for the day was the first lot in the ring from Mr S. Taylor, Walton-By-Kimcote, this second calver made £2,080. this set a benchmark and the cows just got dearer and dearer, peaking at £2,220 from Hankins Heys Farm, Buerton for their third calver Doorman daughter, others from the same home £2,180 and £2,100.

Mr Malcolm Trevor-Jones, The Elms showed his usual first class standard cows at £2,020 and £2,000 with Messrs PA & JA Adams, Butterton also selling at £2,000.

The heifer section was blessed with some lovely uddered individuals today, these produced our top price of £2,500 for a DeSu Davin daughter from Liverpool University who also sold at £2,080.

Messrs EV & B Boughey & Son, Iddenshall followed this with a super fresh heifer by Mambo at £2,400 with others from the same home at £2,120.

Blended red and whites from S.N. Bailey & Partners, Lightwood Green to £2,250 for a Red Hot red daughter and £2,080.

Mr Malcolm Trevor-Jones, The Elms £2,280, OC Whittaker & Sons, Tabley £2,100 and DI Ball & Son, Smallwood £2,050.

Messrs J & S Hammond, Church Eaton continued their dispersal today selling June-September calving cows. Bidding for these was fantastic topping at £1,700 for a Fleckvieh cow.

A larger than expected calf entry sold to £390 from Reaseheath College, Nantwich, with others at £350 twice. Cross bred £100 to £180 with smaller milk calves harder this week £40 to £80.
