CARDIFF HOLSTEIN FRIESIANS SELL TO £1,995

The dispersal sale of the entire milking portion of the Tyla herd for Andrew Wilde of Cardiff, South Wales, which had been moved to Market Drayton Market for sale convenience peaked at 1,900gns (£1,995) for a third calver that had calved in August and due again next July to the British Blue. She was one of nine cattle purchased by a Pembrokeshire buyer.

A September calved fourth calver from the same herd sold for 1,850gns to a Warwickshire buyer and the same Cheshire buyer purchased an August calved heifer for 1,820gns and a July calved heifer for 1,800gns.

The dispersal sale of Keith Bonsall's herd which had also been moved for sale convenience from their Sutton Heath farm sold to 1,800gns twice. Firstly, for an October calved fourth calver and secondly for a third calver that had calved in May, both being purchased by Cheshire buyers.

Both milking herds returned very similar averages levelling at £1,284 including faults.
