Wow!! What an entry, attendance and trade!! Spring fever certainly brought everyone out.

Starting the day was the youngstock dispersal sale from R & J Jones, Aldersey with their Norwegian Red Cross and Holstein served heifers sold to £1,620 with nine making in excess of £1,500.

NW & RW Boyd, Burleydam consigned their last bunch of heifers before their move to Scotland and we wish them well. Shorne Kate by Katactacus sold to £960, their other bulling heifers generally made £850 to £960.

Holstein bullers from AC Kemp, Alvechurch sold to £960 for Oldchurch Dalliance Ellen.

When it comes to yearlings we keep saying these are a highlight and once again this was true.

Liverpool University consigned fourteen fabulously well grown maidens, these topped at £1,150 for Woodpark Colt Stella.

W. Shone & Son, Shocklach sold five in excess of £1,000 topping at £1,060 for Deewen Jane Robin .

Autumn born maidens from R & J Jones, Aldersey sold their Norwegian Red Cross Holsteins to £610 with most making £500 to £600.

British Friesians from NW & RW Boyd, Burleydam sold Shone Kathleen and Shorne Alice to £580.
